INTROIT

Psalm 10:16–18; antiphon: v. 12

Arise, O LORD; O God, lift | up your hand;*
forget not the af- | flicted.
The LORD is king forever and | ever;*
the nations perish | from his land.
O LORD, you hear the desire of the af- | flicted;*
you will strength- | en their heart;
you will incline your ear to do justice to the fatherless and | the oppressed,*
so that man who is of the earth may strike ter- | ror no more.
Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.
Arise, O LORD; O God, lift | up your hand;*
forget not the af- | flicted.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Almighty God, You know we live in the midst of so many dangers that in our frailty we cannot stand upright. Grant strength and protection to support us in all dangers and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Shepherd of the Valley Congregation,

Greetings! I pray that you are all doing well and staying safe and healthy.

I have now been in the Czech Republic for 6 weeks! I arrived a few days before Christmas and I was able to spend Christmas Day and New Years with fellow missionaries.

I am currently tutoring 8 students online. Seven of the men are associated with the Riga Academy and the other student is the Lutheran Bishop of Spain. Two of the men are from Africa, three are from Pakistan, one is from Slovakia, and one is from Belgium. I am learning so much from the men and I have had a great experience with them so far. I can’t wait to tell you all about them when I am with you in person again.

I have also been having meetings with local pastors and church leaders. Starting in February, I will be serving three different congregations in various capacities.

Your congregation remains in my prayers! As always, thank you so much for your ongoing support that allows me to serve in this capacity!

I look forward to staying in touch with all of you.

May God continue to bless you and keep you in His care,

- Hayden
